

Lancashire and Blackpool Tourist Board

rosyview

Ted and The Hairy Bikers make it Awards to remember

A SUPER SUB performance by BBC Radio Lancashire's Ted Robbins and a cooking demonstration from celebrity chefs The Hairy Bikers were served up at this year's Tourism Awards on June 18, when 13 winners trophies and nine highly commended/runner up placings were handed out at Blackburn Rovers Football Club.

Ted stepped in late on to replace BBC North West Tonight's Ranvir Singh who unfortunately had to withdraw the day before the ceremony through illness. The winners and highly commended were:

Bed and Breakfast/Guest Accommodation of the Year

(Sponsored by Taste Lancashire)

Winner - Number One, South Beach, Blackpool

Highly Commended - Little Stubbins Bed & Breakfast, Cloughton-on-Brock

Highly Commended - Whitestake Farm Bed & Breakfast, Nr Preston